Full-period findings (all years, unfiltered): Revenue is steady at about $8.3M a month with no growth trend. Contract customers bring 38% of revenue. The top customer, First Group, is $10.4M (about 3.5%), so concentration risk is low. Delivery on-time is 44.6%, so more than half of deliveries are late. Fuel fell from about 34% to 30% of revenue, which is where the margin gain came from.
